Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1, 3-16 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art does not teach that, if the lamp current is over a-predetermined threshold, repeating the step of igniting the lamp and monitoring the lamp current without repeating the preheating steps and powering the lamp at normal operating condition in combination with all limitations recited in independent claim 1.

The prior art does not teach that, an attempting to ignite the lamp by setting the drive frequency at a preheat frequency and determining from a lamp current of the lamp whether the lamp has ignited within a predetermined ignition period and in response to determining that the lamp has not ignited within the ignition period, re-attempting to ignite the lamp by shifting the drive frequency from the preheat frequency to the operating frequency without setting the drive frequency to the preheat frequency for preheating period in combination with all limitations recited in independent claims 7 and 13-14.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Jayaraman et al. (US 5,650,569); Primisser et al. (US
